

Cheese Importers Association Details Travel Package To October SIAL In Paris, France

Paris, France—The Cheese Importers Association of America, Inc. (CIAA) recently announced details about its travel package to 2008 Paris SIAL.

SIAL, the Global Food Marketplace, will be held here Oct. 19-23 at the Paris Nord-Villepinte Convention & Exhibition Center.

Options for CIAA members and non-members include four or five-night accommodations at the four-star Concorde Saint-Lazare Hotel and airfare on Air France.

Included are daily buffet breakfasts, several cheese industry-sponsored dinners, daily private bus transportation to and from the SIAL, transfer to and from the airport and hotel in Paris, and baggage handling at the hotel.

One of the highlights of the trip is a daylong excursion to historical Strasbourg, gourmet capital of Alsace, on France's just-opened new high speed train. The excursion is exclusively part of the five-night package.

Other special events include a dinner cruise on the Montebello Paris Seine boat, cocktail party in the Champagne Room of the Concorde Saint-Lazare, and a half-day trip to Quai Branly Museum and Le Marais.
